

COOKIES POLICY

TECECORP appreciates your interest in the company and your visit to the company website. Your privacy is important to us and we want you to feel safe when using this website. TECECORP strives to offer Internet services that do not compromise the privacy of customers and visitors.

We use cookies

Cookies and similar tracking tools are used on TECECORP's website. A cookie is a small amount of data, which often includes a unique identifier that is sent to your computer, tablet or mobile phone web browser from a website's computer and is stored on your device's hard drive. Each website can send its own cookie to your web browser if your browser's preferences allow it. Cookies collect information about your use of websites and stores data in your device.

Different types of cookies

On TECECORP's website we use different types of cookies:

- Session cookies allow us to link your actions during a browser session. These session cookies expire after a browser session so would not be stored longer term.
- Permanent cookies are stored on your device in between browser sessions which allows your preferences or actions across a website (or in some cases across different websites) to be remembered. Persistent cookies may be used for a variety of purposes including remembering your preferences and choices when using a website or for advertising purposes.
- First-party cookies are set by TECECORP.
- Third-party cookies are set by someone other than the person responsible for the website, in this case, by someone other than TECECORP, for example, by our partners.

Why we use cookies

We use cookies to optimize your user experience. We simply want to make our website more user-friendly to you, understand the use of our website and improve our services.

We use information collected by means of cookies for the following purposes:

- Functional cookies and service provision: cookies are very important for the operation of our website and they enable a smooth user experience.

- Service development: by use of cookies, we can improve the operation of our website. We receive information, for example, on what the most popular sections of our website are, to which websites the users continue or from which websites they come from, and how long they stay on our website.
- Statistics and analytics: we use cookies to compile statistics on the number of visitors to our web pages and to evaluate the efficiency of advertising and our services.
- Advertising: by means of cookies, we may also collect information for providing advertisements or targeted content.

How to control use of cookies

If you continue to use this website, we consider you accept the use of cookies. You can delete all cookies that are already on your device and you can set most browsers to prevent them from being placed. If you do this, however, you may have to manually adjust some preferences every time you visit a website and some services and functionalities may not work.
